

The Student Leadership Challenge*		Leadership Experiences
Practices	Behaviors
 Model the Way	Follow through on promises and commitments	Members continuously kept organized and accomplished goals consistently.
	Set a personal example through actions	The Team "leader" guided us through all of our segments through their segments.
	Align others with principles and standards
	Seek feedback about impact of actions
	Make sure teammates support common values
	Talk about values and principles
 Inspire a Shared Vision	Look ahead and communicate future ideas	Every member of the group was optimistic and positive about the project's success.
	Describe ideal capabilities	Feedback and opinions were shared to help better the segments each of us worked on.
	Talk about how future could be improved
	Be upbeat and positive
	Communicate purpose and meaning
	Show others how their interests can be realized
 Challenge the Process	Challenge current skills and abilities	Throughout the planning and creating a process, group members verbally expressed opinions to further develop communication skills.
	Break projects into smaller do-able portions	Members continuously kept organized and accomplished goals consistently, two important skills for careers in the future.
	Search for innovative ways to improve
	Ask "What can we learn?"
	Take initiative in experimenting
	Help others try out new ideas
 Enable Others to Act	Foster cooperative relationships with others	Team Members treated each other with respect and incorporated feedback based on what the team thought was right.
	Actively listen to diverse viewpoints	Other people's artistic decisions were valued and appreciated and even affected the segments of others.
	Treat others with respect
	Support the decisions other people make
	Give people freedom and choice
	Provide leadership opportunities for others
 Encourage the Heart	Praise people	Everyone in our team was supportive and helpful towards each other and appreciated the best parts of each other's segments.
	Encourage others
	Express appreciation for people's contributions
	Publicly recognize alignment with values
	Celebrate accomplishments
	Creatively recognize people's contributions

Leadership Categories	Leadership Experiences
 Leadership Roles	Each group member had a different experience through the event, but all agreed on their enriched development of communication and instructive skills.
 Community Service/ Volunteer Experiences
 Leadership Development	Characteristics of leadership were further developed in order to efficiently complete the projects. Group members learned what it takes to create a business. This is a very useful skill in any business operation.
 College Career Planning	Team members who were already interested in web design were much more excited about their potential future career after we finished.

The Student Leadership Challenge* Practices and Behaviors
Model the Way	Follow through on promises and commitments
	Set a personal example through actions
	Align others with principles and standards
	Seek feedback about impact of actions
	Make sure teammates support common values
Inspire a Shared Vision	Talk about values and principles
	Look ahead and communicate future ideas
	Describe ideal capabilities
	Talk about how future could be improved
	Be upbeat and positive
Challenge the Process	Communicate purpose and meaning
	Show others how their interests can be realized
	Challenge current skills and abilities
	Break projects into smaller do-able portions
	Search for innovative ways to improve
Enable Others to Act	Ask "What can we learn?"
	Take initiative in experimenting
	Help others try out new ideas
	Foster cooperative relationships with others
	Actively listen to diverse viewpoints
Encourage the Heart	Treat others with respect
	Support the decisions other people make
	Give people freedom and choice
	Provide leadership opportunities for others
	Praise people
	Encourage others
	Express appreciation for people's contributions
	Publicly recognize alignment with values
	Celebrate accomplishments
	Creatively recognize people's contributions